

4291G FAIRMILE LARGE EXTENDING DINING TABLE

The large extending dining table has smooth, organic lines and is designed for today's living with greater flexibility and practicality. It has an extension leaf that is removable and neatly stored within the table. The tapered legs and curved corners create a subtle, decorative look. Made in British solid ash, this is part of the ercol Grown in Britain (GiB) collection. It can be paired with the Fairmile Dining chair or any other chairs from the ercol range. The simple style of the table along with being available in all ash finishes gives you the ability to match the décor of any room.
