Grown in Britain (GiB) are now making the Lugo chair in Certified-British homegrown timber. A thoroughly modern collection, Lugo takes its inspiration from mid-century Nordic design, with beauty, simplicity and functionality at the core of this collection. The Lugo armchair is a reflection of this design style, with slim tapered legs and a soft curved back this very comfortable solid ash dining chair really is a statement occasional piece. The Lugo armchair sits perfectly with any of our ash dining tables as it is available in a selection of finishes and paint colours. You can choose your seat cushion fabric from any within the ercol or Universal collections to suit your home.
